

Hebrews 6:13-20
God's Promises – Our Hope's Foundation

1. Genuine hope is not just _____ thinking.
2. “Hope deferred makes the heart _____, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of _____” (Prov. 11:12).
3. Worldly hope is _____. Many people's dreams are _____ because the dreams are not rooted in the _____ of God.
4. The world says, “You can _____ anything you want to be and _____ anything you want to do.”
5. God says, “I have made you in my _____ with a _____ that can only be realized through _____ my Word.”
6. God promised Abraham that He would _____ him and _____ his descendants beyond number.
7. This promise did not depend on the _____ of the descendants themselves. The descendants were _____ of the blessing, but they were not the _____ for the blessing (Deut. 9:5, II Kings 13:23).
8. In a similar way, God acted to bless for _____ sake (I Kings 11:29-39), even when his descendants turned _____ from serving Him.
9. However, just because the descendants were a _____ of the “blessing,” does not mean that the same descendants were _____ God's wrath when they willingly _____ against the Lord.
10. God always keeps the _____ He makes. His blessings endure even for a _____ generations (Deut. 7:8-10; I Chron. 16:14; Psalm 105:8).

11. While God “lavishes his unfailing _____ on those who love him and obey his commands,” He also “does not hesitate to _____ and _____ those who reject him” (Deut. 7:9-10).
12. _____ faithfulness and _____ faithfulness are very different things.
13. Our genuine and secure _____ is provided within the framework of our faithfulness to remain _____ to Jesus—the _____ of our souls and the _____ of our faith.
14. If we start to _____ from the Word (Heb. 2:1–4), then we will also start to _____ the Word (Heb. 3:7–4:13). Before long, we will get _____ toward the Word (Heb. 5:11–6:20) and be in real danger of becoming _____ from the living Word.
15. The best way to keep from drifting is—to hold firmly to the _____! (John 14:21).
16. There is no better _____ than the hope we have in Jesus...and this hope will never _____.
